Hello, can you please tell me if I am on a right track, my girlfriend has left me, she said I had no good job. I know that people at this place have some feeling about what is the best.

I am looking for someone with an experience of buying business. I have some experience with buying websites before but not much. My new girlfriend has no boobs but she is smart girl and she has suggested to purchase a design a website ebay at www.999site.com (here is the link, direct link - "how to sell your website") - I hope it can work! Don't you mind share your opinion and experience? I still want my big boobs girlfriend to return if I start making better money with a new website.
